

November 14, 2018

Songs: Carinna Sabetti, Marija Ristic

Musical Experience: Natasha and Haley on Wednesday

For Next Time

Go to Saturday workshop 9:30 TC307 with Bryan Powell

OR: Thursday grad colloquium TC307 12:30 take notes!

OR: Friday grad colloquium TC101 3:30 take notes!

Songs: Haley Fine, Danielle Di Pietrantonio

Musical Experience: Aiden MacPherson, Jasmine Bustard-Johnson on Monday

Musical Experience: Sarah Green on Wednesday

Reading: Ch 7 Rhythm Review & Critical Thinking – please do all! Due Sunday 7pm 400 wds min

AS YOU GET READY FOR YOUR INTERVIEW WITH US:

- Put your online portfolio in order

Organize in whatever seems to make the most sense to you:

Class Notes

Syllabus, schedule, day sheets from class, movement and dance, musical instruments, Integration, curriculum guidelines, teaching tips

The musical experiences from class—posted under resources on OWL working with targeted groups of learners methodologies, research applications, learner characteristics, developmental stages - very valuable trouble shooting, curricular considerations /models curriculum examples – can link to various Canadian music/arts curriculae specifics on teaching notation/songs/listening etc, behavior mod strategies materials on music and culture, creative experiences, notes on conferences and lectures / workshops, reflections, separate readings, sources, websites etc. and projects, Observation 1, Observation 2

check out things under resources on OWL

Song Collection

organized (by age, alphabetically, by category)

suitable for elementary aged children, sourced with verses and content linked to recordings, books, stories, props, activities, games

May Include: Game songs, greeting songs, dance songs, rounds action songs, camp, special events (holidays, Halloween, etc.)

work songs, historical events, many cultures, Canadian specific, French language

Very young, Younger elementary, Upper age elementary, Easy 2 part, Lullabies

Find notation and sound source for other songs

Include links to online Youtube songs – be sure to be critical here. Do you like the song? Does this song inspire you? Will students enjoy it?

Maybe: Visuals And Props

Ideas for bulletin boards, Graphics, cue cards, charts, ppts

Puppets, scarves, maps, other props ideas

ADD pictures, music you like, things that make this your own!!